

Bad weather arrangements for Student Body Registration and Hall Information Day 2023

When Tropical Storm Warning Signal No. 8 (or a higher number), the Black Rainstorm Warning Signal or “Extreme conditions” after super typhoons are in force is hoisted, the following arrangements will apply:

| | |
|--|---|
| If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 6:00 am on August 12 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Both sessions of August 12 will be cancelled. Students who are supposed to come in the a.m. session of August 12 should come to register in the a.m. session of August 13 and students who are supposed to come in the p.m. session of August 12 should come in the p.m. session of August 13.- Both a.m. and p.m. sessions originally scheduled on August 13 will be postponed by one day to August 14. |
| If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 11:00 am on August 12 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The p.m. session of August 12 will be cancelled automatically. Students should come to register in the p.m. session of August 13.- Both a.m. and p.m. sessions originally scheduled on August 13 will be postponed by one day to August 14. |
| If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 6:00 am on August 13 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Both a.m. and p.m. sessions of August 13 will be cancelled. Students who are supposed to come in the a.m. session of August 13 should come to register in the a.m. session of August 14 and students who are supposed to come in the p.m. session of August 13 should come in the p.m. session of August 14. |
| If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 11:00 am on August 13 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The p.m. session of August 13 will be cancelled automatically. Students should come to register in the p.m. session of August 14. |

- If the session has already started when one of the warnings is hoisted, it will continue until the end of the session.